

Jesus, the One and Only

Savior of Mankind

Contrast the 2 accounts:

Genesis 36 – the account of Esau, ie. Edom (also see Heb.12:16-17)

- ☛ Edom means “RED”.
 - Red is the color of war. (Rev.6:4)
- ☛ Amalek - After the Torah was given, when "G-d descended on Mt. Sinai,"^[21] the Torah could have an effect on the world: physical things could now be sanctified, elevated. This is what Amalek hated. In spiritual terms, Amalek represents the opposition to allowing the Torah to permeate and affect one's emotions and actions. The hostility is not so much to knowledge of G-d; it is to allowing that knowledge to be translated into concrete terms - dedicating one's thoughts, speech and deed totally to G-d. Amalek's attitude was summed up by our Rabbis: "He knows his Creator and willfully rebels against Him." Know G-d - yes; serve G-d - no! cries out Amalek in all his evil hatred. Amalek, then, represents the chasm between knowledge of G-d and acceptance of His yoke. Every Jew is susceptible, subtly at least, to such a rebellion against G-d. Amalek is "the head of nations." The seven nations of the land of Canaan correspond to the seven base emotional attributes of the soul. Amalek attempts to block the knowledge of G-d from influencing those attributes to strive to come close to G-d.
 - CF - Numbers 24:20; Exodus 17:16; Deut.25:19; Amos 1:11; Obad. 18
- ☛ "JOBAB" is a name that signifies or is derived from: "sorrowful", "hated".
- ☛ There are also names which had positive meanings like Eliphaz which meant "friend of God".
- ☛ Tree of knowledge of good and evil?
